100 Days On Steam : Greetings folks, It's been 100 days since Super Chains came out to Early Access! To celebrate, we have pushed an update that improves the hiscores interface. Behind the scenes, we've upgraded to the brand new Steamworks v1.44. This may cause a few crashes here and there, but hopefully everything should be fixed and running smoothly in the next few days. Additionally, we are now backwards compatible with 32-bit versions of Windows (Vista,

7, 8, 8.1 or later).. Available December 18 : Greetings and thank you for supporting Super Chains, sequel to the original Chains from 2008. We are all looking forward to December 18-th when Super Chains will enter Early Access (Windows, Linux and Mac). So far the game features 10 different puzzles (more like game modes) each with a uniquely original gameplay mechanic (inspired by the original Chains). The final version will have at least 20 puzzles and extras.

The game includes leaderboards, achievements, dynamic hints! Full controller support is planned in the future too.

Although the game is not fully localized, partially supported languages include English, German, Spanish, French, Italian, Portuguese and Russian. The soundtrack is by the electro artist Silence.. Early Access Week 1 : Greetings and thank you for supporting Super Chains! First off Super Chains has a new and shiny user interface. Special thanks to HumanSpider and EranKrief who have helped bring the game to Hungarian, Hebrew and Polish. If you'd like to help the effort, please check out: A lot of small improvements and fixes have been made through player feedback (customize-able palette for the colorblind, better hints and indications, etc). Huge thanks to everybody who provided suggestions. I promise to get everybody's name in the credits soon! Controller support is close to complete, although we might remove

Early Access Week 10 : Greetings and thank you for supporting Super Chains! The game has become a lot more stable, since we started accepting automatic error reports. Super Chains will hopefully come out of Early Access by the end of this week (March 9th).. Early Access Week 8 : Greetings and thank you for supporting Super Chains! First off, I would like to thank everybody who has provided help and feedback during development. Shutouts to Human Spider and Kaz Brazil for translating the game into several new languages. If you speak another language you can help us out by going to: (just make sure to login using your Steam account). This week we have released two new puzzles (just one more left of the 20 planned) The Color Link puzzle will replace the old Pyramid stage - which was superseded by the Hex stage.

Color link is an interesting variation of the traditional Number link puzzles. It was difficult to make this stage procedural (turns out that it's hard to avoid zig-zag paths), but I think the result works quite well (at least for small-sized puzzles). The Rhythm puzzle is a music-based minigame about building a sequence of notes. This one will test both your analytical skills and your timing, so make sure to give it a try. Additionally, I have created six new achievements (a total of 50 are planned!) At this rate we are going to leave Early Access sooner than expected.. Non-

Early Access Week 5 : Greetings and thank you for supporting Super Chains! First off, I would like to thank everybody who has reported bugs or sent in feedback. I know how frustrating it is to deal with bugs, so thanks for your patience! After another busy week, we are happy to announce the release of the Super Chains demo: Super Chains now features 28 achievements - with a total of 50 planned. As you may know the game has been pushed out of Early Access accidentally. Nevertheless, we are still committed to the original plan of producing 20 puzzles. As promised, the price of the game may increase slightly once these goals are met. Until then the game remains in unofficial early access.. Early
